

The second level higher professional education bachelor study programmes
APPLIED COMMUNICATION AND TRANSLATION

The second level higher professional education bachelor study programmes

APPLIED COMMUNICATION AND TRANSLATION

About the program

This course enables graduates to strengthen and consolidate their academic and professional skills in further studies in Master level, have a job in companies and community services or work in international and country scale projects teams. Visiting professors from partner universities will be involved as teachers and advisors in the program. Students have an opportunity participate in Erasmus mobility for studies and traineeship. Course lasts 4 years, corresponding to 240 ECTS. Course structure consists of 3 parts

- Part A – compulsory courses (general)
- Part B – elective courses (specialization)
- Part C – selective courses

Qualification awarded:

Interpreter assistant

Admission requirements:

Secondary education.

In diploma must be grades for at least two of three subjects - mathematics, foreign languages (English, German, French, Russian), basics of business economics which involves:

- 1) accounting/accountancy with AFS/ costing 50 /50 or
- 2) economics or
- 3) business studies(with functional management) or
- 4) management

Duration of studies:

4 years of full-time studies – 8 semesters – 240 ECTS.

Access to further studies:

Master Studies

Language of studies:

English

Final test:

State examination and bachelor paper

Study fee:

3190 EUR per year

Information on website:

http://www.rta.lv/study_programs

Contacts:

http://www.rta.lv/online_application_procedure ;

e-mail: admissions@rta.lv

RĒZEKNES TEHNOLOĢIJU AKADĒMIJA
RĒZEKNE ACADEMY OF TECHNOLOGIES www.rta.lv